ABOUT NUALS

The National University of Advanced Legal Studies (NUALS) was established by Act 27 of 2005 of the Kerala State Legislature. The main object of the University is to advance and disseminate learning and knowledge of law and to promote legal and judicial reforms needed to strengthen the administration of justice in India.

ABOUT CWFS

The Centre for Women and Family Studies is established at NUALS in the year 2014 as the eighth centre of study and research which pursue excellence by gathering momentum through its wide-ranging and tremendous extension activities. The Centre aims to create and disseminate knowledge on various facets of women studies and assist the legislative and executive machinery in the process of formulation of laws and policies.

“Not many can speak and write with power”.

Justice V. R. Krishna Iyer

It is through writing and speaking that the law inspires succeeding generations. An initiative taken by the Centre for Women and Family Studies, NUALS in the light of startling and astounding mock-up and violation of human rights of women, is getting off the ground. Realisation of human rights of women is entangled with varied impediments and hurdles. There is much hiatus between real life challenges and that in black and white. Removal of the gap is not an easier task but it can be achieved with the help of social reconstruction through the means of law to the extent possible. No society however developed it might be can be considered civilised till it breeds the collective culture of respect for human rights of women. Rather than a guest to the house of human rights we want to make ourselves hosts in the house.
