COMPETITION OVERVIEW

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

Since its inception in 2007, the vision of ADRC has been to disseminate knowledge relating to Alternative Dispute Resolution Mechanisms and create a platform for like minded and zealous individuals to come together to revolutionize the process of dispute settlement.

This goal became a reality in 2012 with the Cell organizing Asia's oldest as well as India's largest Mediation Tournament, the "NLIU INADR International Law School Mediation Tournament". With each successive year, we have witnessed participation from all National Law Schools and premier private law schools of the country besides Universities in United States, Australia and parts of Europe.

With the experience of organising 8 successful editions of our prestigious mediation tournament, this year ADRC aims to conduct the "1st NLIU International Negotiation Competition 2020" virtually. The competition aims to provide an opportunity for students to be a part of disputes akin to actual altercations witnessed by legal professionals. It further presents an opportunity to hone the requisite communication and negotiation skills in addition to holding discussions with equally enthusiastic professionals and students in the field.

GENERAL DETAILS OF THE COMPETITION

I. FORMAT OF THE COMPETITION

The competition shall be in the format of a negotiation competition wherein each team shall consist of 2 participants, i.e. the Client and the Counsel. Due to the technical limitations of a remote tournament, the number of teams has been limited to 24. The same would be selected by the ADRC, on the basis of Curricula Vitae of the participants. The tournament shall have 2 Preliminary rounds and 2 Advanced Rounds (the Semi- Final and the Final).

Further, it shall be mandatory for each participant to play the roles of both Client and Counsel in the Preliminary rounds, i.e. if a participant plays the role of a Client in the first preliminary round, she/he would be required to participate as a counsel in the second preliminary round and vice-versa for her/his team partner. The time-limit shall be 60 minutes for the Preliminary Rounds, and 90 minutes for the Advanced Rounds.

II. Eligibility

The participation is limited to students pursuing their Bachelor's degree in law (LLB, BCL, JD or equivalent).

III. Registration fees

- INR 2000 per participant- For Indian teams
- USD 50 per participant- For Foreign Teams

GENERAL DETAILS OF THE COMPETITION

VI. COACH

Every team may be accompanied by 1 coach. The registration fee for the coach would be INR 1000 for an Indian team and USD 30 for a foreign team. The team coach is also permitted to attend their team's mediation sessions. And they shall also receive a certificate of recognition at the conclusion of the competition.

VII. UNIVERSITY REPRESENTATION

Considering the limitation on the number of teams, each University is permitted to be represented by only one team.

ABOUT ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION CELL (ADRC)

ADRC has, since its inception, established itself as a frontrunner in the field of arbitration, mediation and negotiation. Owing to a strong belief in the principle of 'learning beyond the Four walls of a classroom', we work to encourage and promote student participation in the arbitration, negotiations and mediation agreements in order to develop important skills required in the real world.

We are one of the oldest ADR Committees in Asia, and have been hosting various workshops and training sessions on Mediation and Negotiation for both vocational and tournament-based operations, as well as organising the Intra College Participant's Pool cum Tournament.

With new voices and opinions at helm, ARDC is all set to bring new expansionist ideas which will revamp the sphere of mediation and arbitration, both in India and abroad.
