ABOUT THE ORGANISATION:

JuristoPedia is a diverse venture taken up by like-minded individuals, aiming to deliver knowledge on various contemporary issues along with some basic insight in law which is quite crucial in days to come. After diagnosing the need for virtual education through well researched blogs and articles, we have worked towards establishing a platform that will serve students and professionals in various ways some of which we have started to achieve.

The foundation is to generate awareness and deliver to those who are already aware and are hungry for knowledge, legal aptitude through various landmark case briefs and much more just by one. Not just for common people but we also aim to make substantial changes in the way people, law scholars, interns, and legal professionals have worked in a framework. By getting associated with us students gain holistic skills in the parlance of legal profession, be it debates, or research and academics we deliver grooming in all aspects of the academic life.

Juristopedia with the thought that “Teaching is not the source of learning instead it comes from within the learner. As buddha said, learning is to know one’s self and surroundings.” Organised its 1st National Online Quiz Competition on Constitutional law and Current Affairs on July 1,2020. There was huge participation and support from students of various Universities making it a successful event and bestowing us with the confidence to organise more full of learning and experience gaining events that not only add to the Achievements but also an skill honing opportunity.

We have our blogging website www.thejuristopedia.wordpress.com, where one can find ample amounts of blogs to read and refurbish their legal knowledge. We believe that there is always a scope of learning and we all learn throughout our lives, so we bring such legal issues that create awareness and help in learning something new every time.

PICTORIAL QUIZ

Juristopedia has come forward with a different form of quiz, Pictorial Quiz (Guess the Picture) which is one of a kind. The quiz shall be entirely based on the questions comprising pictures related to the law field and current affairs. You will have to identify the picture and guess the correct answer out of the given four options. The picture asked will also have some hints to help you in its identification. Why to go think Quiz as boring and serious when it can be fun and full of knowledge. What can be a more fun way to learn and expand the horizons of your legal knowledge, especially when it is in such a fun and different form and one can also earn rewards and e-certificate for all the participants. This surely brings the zeal and excitement for participating in an event, so what to wait for, fill the required details and get yourself registered...
