

TNNLU CONSTITUTIONAL LAW SOCIETY BLOG

THEME

The theme for this month is "Health Equity, Public Health and the Constitution".

We are accepting original and genuine contributions addressing the current predicaments of public health governance through an interdisciplinary lens. We encourage analyses of various aspects of research in public health including- Emergency Preparedness and Infrastructural analysis; Workplace Safety and Occupational Hazard in Healthcare; Ethics and Distributive Justice in access to essential healthcare and services; relevance of Data Privacy in Public Health Policy and other allied areas of research.

The CLS- Blog welcomes submissions of the following types-

- Short Articles (up to 2000 words)
- Opinion pieces (700-1200 words)
- Legislative Comments (up to 2000 words)
- Case Comments (up to 2000 words)
- Book Reviews (up to 1500 words)

The deadline for the thematic submission is 5th August, 2021.

FOR MORE DETAILS, CONTACT US AT:

✉ clsblog@tnnlu.ac.in.

