COMPARATIVE LAW E-NEWSLETTER [VOL-II ISSUE-2]

ABOUT MNLUA

Maharashtra Law University Aurangabad (MNLU-A), is an institution established in the year 2017, with an objective of imparting quality legal education, to develop advanced clinical pedagogies and research. The University also imbibes values of profession coupled with various skill sets required for the profession of advocacy.

About the Newsletter

Devoted to the study of comparative and international laws and legal systems, the Comparative Law e-Newsletter (CLN) is an open-access, peer-reviewed, and refereed newsletter published bi-annually, with four Issues already released. It embraces analytical, theoretical, empirical, and socio-legal attempts surrounding the public and private law aspects of various legal systems.

OUR VISION

To capture the essence of legal education by making a substantial comparative analysis

It aims to encourage comparative legal studies in the transnational context of legal history, theory, philosophy, legal cultures and traditions, by tracking the developments in the field across the world. The newsletter seeks works that are dynamic and interdisciplinary in nature with specific display of comprehensive knowledge on the subject matter.

OBJECTIVE OF THE NEWSLETTER

The newsletter has been entrenched with the goal to expand mindfulness and advance research in the field of comparative law and to address the present-day problems whilst keeping an interdisciplinary approach. The initiative of the newsletter is taken to provide access to legal information, as well as to provide space for debate and discussion between the right holders.

Further, to foster research culture with the participation of professionals, law students, litigators, academicians and other author(s) ejusdem generis in research avenues. The newsletter intends to include articles, interviews, case and legislative comments, social spotlights, judgements, short notes, legal maxims etc. to make a significant and ambitious contribution to a comparative legal study.
